

Movement, 2022

Arts Access Series of Fortunate Events
Hall Gallery, Sertoma Arts Center, Raleigh NC
July 1, 2022 - August 30, 2022

Arts Access is excited to host an exhibition titled Movement, featuring works of art created by North Carolina artists with disabilities. What does “Movement” mean to you? How does this word inspire you? Do you view movement as more of a noun as in “a movement” or is it more of an action verb to you? Is it in the context of nature, mechanics, body, mind, or social? This show invites you to share your creativity inspired by what movement is to you.

The exhibition will be on view throughout the months of July and August. A reception to celebrate the artists will be held on Sunday, July 24th from 2:00pm-4:00pm at Sertoma Arts Center located at 1400 W Millbrook Rd, Raleigh, NC 27612.

The juried exhibition is open to any NC artist who identifies as having a disability. All entries must be original works of art, wired and ready to hang. One entry per artist. Juried with JPEGs. We encourage student artists, emerging artists and experienced artists to apply. The submission deadline is May 16, 2022.

The Movement exhibit and opening reception will be part of the Arts Access Series of Fortunate Events - a series of arts and performance events designed to highlight and showcase the work of artists with disabilities. There will also be a chance for everyone to explore their own artistic abilities while participating in a hands-on open art project. Instructions and supplies will be provided. Accommodations are also available throughout the event to make the patron experience accessible, including ASL tours, Audio Described tours and 3D tactile experiences.
